THE CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF TANGA

TANGA CATHOLIC SECONDARY SCHOOLS UNION (TACASSU)

FORM FOUR JOINT PRE-NATIONAL EXAMINATION 1

012 HISTORY

TIME: 3 Hours 2026

Instructions

1. This paper consists of a total of eleven questions.
2. Answer all questions in section A and B and two questions from section C.
3. Section A carries 16 marks; section B carries 54 marks and section C carries 30 marks.
4. ALL writings must be in blue/black ink, drawing in pencil.
5. Put all the answers in the answer sheets NOT in the question papers.

wazaelimu.com

SECTION A (16 MARKS)

Answer all questions from this section.

1. Choose the most correct letter among the given alternatives and write it in the answer booklet provided.

(i) A student wants to investigate the past life of a Tanzanian community by interviewing elderly members of that community. Which source of historical information is the student mainly using?

A. Archaeological remains
B. Oral traditions
C. Written records
D. Photographs
E. Linguistic evidence

(ii) A pre-colonial African community used iron tools for farming, increased food production and exchanged surplus crops for other goods. Which development resulting from iron technology is demonstrated by this situation?

A. Decline in food production
B. Increase in production and trade
C. Abandonment of agriculture
D. Decline in population
E. Decline of handicraft activities

(iii) Two pre-colonial communities in Tanzania lived in different environments. One community mainly practised pastoralism while the other practised crop cultivation. They exchanged livestock for grain and thereby developed a peaceful relationship. This is an example of:

A. Economic interaction
B. Colonialism
C. Slavery
D. Anti-colonial resistance

E. Colonial exploitation

(iv) The major reason for the outbreak of the Majimaji war in German East Africa can greatly be associated with the following:

A. Rinderpest disease
B. Compulsory cotton growing
C. Railway construction
D. Forced labour
E. Low wages

(v) Which of the following statements do not clearly relate to why the Ngoni were very successful over the East African communities?

A. The societies they found were united and compacted.
B. They incorporated the natives into their army.
C. The use of the scorched-earth system
D. Military capability of the Ngoni
E. They had strong leadership.

(vi) The formation of the Organization of African Unity (OAU) in 1963 was primarily aimed at:

A. Creating a single military force for the entire continent.
B. Establishing a common currency for all African states.
C. Promoting the total decolonisation of the African continent.
D. Merging all African countries into one federal state.
E. Eliminating the borders created during the Berlin Conference.

(vii) Which factor significantly accelerated the rise of African nationalism after the Second World War?

A. The decline of the Pan-African Movement in America.
B. The return of African ex-soldiers who had seen that Europeans were not invincible.
C. The decision of European powers to voluntarily leave their colonies.
D. The total collapse of the Soviet Union.
E. The decrease in the number of educated Africans (elites).

(viii) The policy of "assimilation" used by the French in West Africa was based on the assumption that:

A. African culture was superior to European culture.
B. Africans could never attain the level of French civilisation.
C. Africans could be turned into French citizens through language and culture.
D. Every colony should have its own independent traditional laws.
E. Education should only be provided in African local languages.

(ix) The reintroduction of multi-party democracy in Tanzania in 1992 was influenced by:

A. The launch of the Arusha Declaration.
B. The demands of the 1964 Zanzibar Revolution.
C. Internal political pressure and the global wave of democratisation after the Cold War.
D. The immediate collapse of the East African Community.
E. The beginning of the Second World War.

(x) In pre-colonial Africa, the mode of production characterised by communal ownership of land and the absence of social classes was

A. Feudalism
B. Capitalism
C. Primitive Communalism
D. Slavery
E. Mercantilism

2. Match the historical concepts in List A with the corresponding responses in List B.

List A	List B
(i) A source of history transmitted through narration from one generation to another (ii) A source of history transmitted through narration from one generation to anotherd native Africans in the Kenya Colony in East Africa. (iii) The study of remains of objects used by people in the past (iv) A political system in which a central ruler exercised authority over a territory and its people (v) An economic activity involving the production of food using land (vi) The exchange of goods for other goods without using money	A. .Archaeology B. Oral traditions C. Centralised political system D. Agriculture E. Barter trade F. Hunting G. Decentralised political system

SECTION B (54 MARKS)

Answer all questions in this section.

3. Briefly explain the following historical concepts and their roles in the development of pre-colonial Africa (i) – (vi):
   (i) The role of the Iron Revolution in the transition from communalism to feudalism.
   (ii) How the age-set system facilitated the defence of pastoralist societies like the Maasai.
   (iii) The impact of the Trans-Saharan Trade on the rise of Western Sudanic states (e.g., Mali).
   (iv) Two reasons why the Nyamwezi emerged as powerful long-distance traders in the 19th century.
   (v) The significance of the Golden Stool in the unification of the Asante Empire.
   (vi) How the long-distance trade contributed to the introduction of Islam in the interior of East Africa.

4. Arrange the following events in a chronological order by writing number 1 to 6 beside the item number.
   (i) The formation of the United Nations and establishment of the Trusteeship council was of great importance to the rise of African nationalism.
   (ii) The independent states of Africa aimed at creating strong continental organization hence they formed the Organization of African Unity.
   (iii) The formation of SADC was welcomed by two hands by the people of Southern African countries as it promised them of a bright future.

(iv) The Pan-African movement that started in the United States and Caribbean laid a foundation for establishment of global struggle of black people's unity and solidarity.
(v) The people of East Africa were not left aside they responded to this wave by forming the famous East African community.
(vi) The West African countries also responded by forming the Economic Community of West African States.

5. Analyse the nature of colonial administration and the African response:
(i) Two differences between the British indirect rule and the French assimilation policy.
(ii) Why the Majimaji Resistance (1905-1907) is considered a "large-scale" resistance.
(iii) The role of the Akidas and Jumbes in the German administrative system in East Africa.
(iv) How the Anglo-German Treaty of 1890 (Heligoland) affected the boundaries of Tanzania.
(v) One reason why Ethiopia (Battle of Adowa) successfully defeated Italian colonisation.
(vi) The significance of Spirit Mediums (like Kinjekitile or Nehanda) in early African resistances.

6. Identify three reasons why the colonial government prioritised the construction of railways and roads from the interior to the coast rather than connecting African towns.

7. Tanzania has historically prioritised economic sovereignty and regional security.
(a) Outline three strategic reasons why Tanzania officially withdrew its membership from the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa (COMESA) in 2000. (4.5 marks)
(b) Explain three benefits Tanzania enjoys as a founding member of the Southern African Development Community (SADC). (4.5 marks)

8. Briefly explain three ways in which the Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade contributed to the underdeveloped state of the African continent.

SECTION C (30 MARKS)

Answer two questions from this section.

9. "Colonialism was a double-edged sword that brought both modern infrastructure and deep-seated underdevelopment to Africa."
Critically evaluate this statement by providing six arguments showing how the colonial economy structured African societies to serve European interests rather than internal development.

10. Using six points, explain the factors that determined the nature of African reactions (either collaboration or resistance) toward the establishment of colonial rule.

11. Show the role played by the colonial social services in consolidating colonialism in Africa. Give six points.