THE UNITED REPUBLIC OF TANZANIA
THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE
REGIONAL ADMINISTRATION AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT
LONGIDO DISTRICT
ANNUAL JOINT EXAMINATION

FORM THREE
LITERATURE IN ENGLISH

Time: 3 Hours November 2024

INSTRUCTIONS.

1. This paper consists of three sections with eleven (11) questions.
2. Answer all questions in section A and B and only two questions from section C
3. Use legible handwriting and organise your work in a proper order.
4. Cellular phones and any unauthorised materials are not allowed in the examination room.
5. Write your examination number on every page of your answer booklet(s).

SECTION A (15 Marks)

Answer all questions in this section.

1. For each of the items (i) – (x), choose the correct answer from among the given alternatives and write its letter beside the item number in the answer booklet provided.

(i) A literature teacher told students, 'Boots that are worn by some of the boys as part of school uniform make them look like soldiers', the terms boots and soldiers represent a literary device called
   A. Antithesis
   B. Synecdoche
   C. Symbolism
   D. Anecdote
   E. Metonym

(ii) Seypalm and Asifiwe are friends who are scoring high marks in Literature subject, on their way home from school; they were mentioning characters from a very interesting play called 'The Lion and the Jewel'. Seypalm listed four characters who are Baroka, Lakunle, Sidi, Sadiku, Ailatu and Stranger. Asifiwe emphasizes to Asifie that Sidi is discussed by Baroka, Sadiku and Lakunle. Sidi can be classified as
   A. Stock character
   B. Expository character
   C. Main character
   D. Round character
   E. Antagonist character

(iii) 'Better bought a bit of butter but the butter was so bitter; she bought some better butter to make the bitter butter better.' Which genre of oral literature is this?
   A. Saying
   B. Proverb

C. Short form
D. Tongue twister
E. Riddle

(iv) The narrator of a story in a literary work who is not a character in a book but someone out of a book narrating on the inner thought and feelings of the main character is called
A. Omniscient Third Person
B. First Person Point Of View
C. Limited Third Person
D. Objective Third Person
E. Second Person

(v) Seypalm told his children, "You will never be given school money unless ……." Seypalm told his children after scoring below 30% in Literature Pre Mock examination. The quoted clause implies literary device called
A. Aposiopesis
B. Ellipsis
C. Antithesis
D. Satire
E. Sarcasm

(vi) The journalist from Tanzania Broadcasting Company reported, 'Tabora Central police was invaded by marijuana smokers on Wednesday afternoon.' The literary term that can cover the action is called
A. Paradox
B. Situational Irony
C. Dramatic Irony
D. Verbal Irony
E. Allusion

(vii) Form three students were reading the list of characters in the first pages of the play named 'The dilemma of a ghost', who were given roles to play by Christina Ama Ata Aidoo. What were they reading?
A. Plays
B. Characters
C. Cast of characters
D. Preface
E. Prelude

(viii) The technique whereby the narrator pretends to know each and everything about character's behaviour in a work of art is named as
A. First Person Point Of View
B. Narrative Technique
C. Omniscient Point Of View
D. Second Person Point Of View
E. Third Person Point Of View

(ix) 'Neema is a lioness' Juma said. Which figures of speech has been employed
A. Metaphor

B. Simile
C. Personification
D. Litotes
E. Symbolism

(x) One of the following is an example of metonymy
A. The ocean water clapped hand to welcome lovers
B. Let me give you a hand
C. The phrase "gray beard" refers to an old man.
D. Man proposes, God disposes.
E. You are becoming a little thin on top

2. Match the item in list B with the correct expression in list A by writing the corresponding letter beside the item number in your answer sheet.

LIST A	LIST B
(i) The audience learns the setting; characters are developed, and a conflict is introduced. (ii) Purification or purgation of emotions such as fear or pity caused by tragic experience. (iii) Here the author's tone about his or her subject matter is revealed, and sometimes a moral or lesson is learned. (iv) The complications arise and the protagonist encounter obstacles. (v) The highest or most intense point in the development or resolution of a story. (vi) Anything that interrupts the peace and balance of the situation and one or more of the characters comes into conflict with an outside force.	A. Climax B. Exposition C. Denouement D. Falling action E. Rising action F. Inciting incident G. Catharsis

SECTION B (40 Marks)

Answer all questions in this section.

3. My friend who studies science treats me with contempt because I study literature. He claims that studying literature is a wastage of time, as it has nothing to do with our future. As a Literature student, what can you tell him about the significance of studying literature? Use six points.

4. Read the following poem and answer the questions that follow:

EAT MORE (JOE CORIE)

Eat more fruit! The slogan say,
"More fish, more beef, more bread!"
But I'm on unemployment more pay
My third year now, and wed.

And so I wonder when I'll see
The slogan when I pass,
The only one that would suit me.
"Eat more Bloody Grass!"

Questions

(i) How many stanzas does the poem have?

(ii) How many verses does the poem have?
(iii) Mention four pairs of rhyming words.
(iv) With evidence from the poem, outline two ideas from the poem.
(v) Which figure of speech can be presented by the first verse of the first stanza
(vi) What do you learn from the poem?

5. Write short notes on the following
   (a) Foreshadowing
   (b) Point of view
   (c) Aesthetics
   (d) Rhetorical question
   (e) Setting
   (f) Conflict

6. Provide a literary term for each of the descriptions below:
   (a) "This is our hard working and best performing student at this school. We really appreciate her efforts towards her brighter prosperity" These were headmaster's words to the visitors about a student called Jamilla who always become the last in every exam, sleeps in class during the lessons and she never does home works assigned my teachers.
   (b) "Khadija is in a family way, we should call a parent to discuss the matter." The discipline master of Seypalm secondary school advised the headmaster.
   (c) We are reading a novella, the character Grace and John Abrahams think that Willieboy is the one who killed Uncle Doughty, but (we) the readers know that it is not Willieboy but Michael Adonis.
   (d) Our grandfather told us a story about Monkey and Crocodile at the end of the story he told us that the story teaches that we should not trust anyone.
   (e) Betina beat Boston before break
   (f) Let's sing some gentle songs to the baby so that she can stop crying.

7. There is no way literature can be separated from art since literature is a part of it. In six points, show how literature relate to art.

8. Give one reason for each of the following descriptions.
   (i) Oral literature is older than written literature.
   (ii) Fable and parable have a common feature.
   (iii) Society is the only consumer of literature.
   (iv) Parables are important to the society.
   (v) There is no literature without language
   (vi) A play is incomplete without stage direction.

SECTION C (30 Marks)

Answer two (2) questions from this section

LISTS OF READINGS

PLAYS

The lion and the Jewel -Soyinka, W.
The Trial of Brother Jero – Soyinka, W.
The Dilemma of a Ghost –Aidoo, A. A.
The Government Inspector - Gogol, N.

NOVELS

A Walk in the Night and Other Stories -La Guma, A.
Houseboy – Oyono, F.
The Old Man and the Medal - Oyono, F.
The Concubine –Amadi, E.

POETRY

Selected poems - Institute of Education
Growing up with poetry -David Lubadil

9. Both written and oral literature relate in some factors. With six points, show how the two relate to one another.

10. Plays are meant to teach the society. Validate the statement above with reference to two plays. (Give three (3) points from each play).

11. Poems reveal evils that are taking place in our societies. With reference to two poems, validate the statement above.