MKALAMA DISTRICT COUNCIL

FORM THREE TERMINAL EXAMINATION

LITERATURE IN ENGLISH

Time: 3:00Hours MAY 2025

Instructions

1. This paper consists of sections A, and B with a total of five(5) questions
2. Answer all questions in both section A and B
3. All writings must be in blue or black ink

wazaelimu.com

SECTIONA :(16Marks)

Answer all questions in this section.

1. For each of the item (i)–(x) choose the correct answer from among the given alternatives and write its letter beside the item number in the booklet provided.

i. The following are the factors that make literature different from other works of art , EXCEPT.
   A. Literature has characters.
   B. Literature uses language.
   C. Literature has performance.
   D. Literature has a specific setting.
   E. Literature is divided in acts and scenes.

ii. Kere read a play called "Kinjeketile*" which addresses the event of "The Maji maji war" that really happened in the history of Tanganyika involving the southern tribes under the leadership of Kinjeketile Ngwale. What kind of a play did he read?
   A. Melodrama.
   B. Tragic comedy drama.
   C. Tragedy drama.
   D. Historical drama.
   E. Comedy drama.

iii. "He wasn't slow to accept the offer*"–meaning he was quick to accept the offer. This statement best describes: -
   A. A personification.
   B. An over statement.
   C. Litotes.
   D. An understatement.
   E. An irony.

iv. "Mary got pregnant the same days he got married. Nine months later she gave birth to a healthy baby boy". This statement describes a plot called: -
   A. Foreshadowing.
   B. Flash-forward.
   C. Flashback.
   D. Chronological plot.
   E. Climax.

v. Mahamood was reading "A walk in the night" and in page 20 he came across this description "She Had a heavy mouth smeared blood-red with greasy lipsticks that it looked stark as a wound in her dark face". This statement describes: -

A. Visual image (image of sight)
B. Olfactory image (image of smell)
C. Audio image (image of sound)
D. Tactile image (image of touch)
E. Gustatory image (image of taste)

vi. One of the following statements represents a literary language as opposed to ordinary language.

A. In my wedding I invited billions of people.
B. Jesca is studying in the library.
C. Will you go to the cinema this evening?
D. They will be here any time from now.
E. The teacher is teaching Literature.

vii. This is a story about a creature like a small person, who has magic power all for children.

A. Tall tale
B. Fairy tale
C. Tricks tertale
D. Folktale
E. Folklore

J

viii. Poetic license is the freedom by which the poet is allowed to violate/break certain grammatical rules to achieve a poetic effect. Which line has employed poetic license?

A. They've just a arrived.
B. I'll show you the way.
C. I saw twenty people at the market.
D. Ten thousand saw I at a glance.
E. Literature is enjoyable.

ix. "They sell the wedding bells." This is an example of: -

A. Alliteration
B. Consonance
C. Refrain
D. Reiteration
E. Assonance.

x. Angel was watching drama that was full of serious actions and scenes that made her sad and at times it had humorous scenes that myade her laugh. Finally it ended happily. Angel was watching:-

A. A comedy drama

B. A tragedy drama

C. A melodra

D. A historical drama

E. A tragic-comedy drama

2. MatchthedescriptionsinListAwiththecorrespondingtypeofiteminListBbywritingtheletterof the correct response beside the item number in the answer booklet provided.

LISTA	LISTB
i) This is a work of fiction that is longer and more complex than a short story and it has more than forty thousand words. ii) This is a fiction work that is longer than a short story but shorter than a novel. iii) This is a short novel, typically one that is light and romantic or sentimental in character. iv) This is a story usually about imaginative characters and events that is short enough to be read from the beginning to the end without stopping. v) This refers to any kind of writing that is not poetry or that is not presented in verse form or stanza. vi) A narrative in which one writes about his or her own life history.	A. Prose fiction B. Short story C. Novelette D. Novella E. Novel F. Autobiography G. Drama H. Biography

SECTION B (54Marks)

Answer all questions in this section.

3. Imagine that you have gone home for the holiday and you meet your friend who is studying PCB at Jokate Mwegelo High school. You tell her that you are studying Literature in English and she says you are wasting your time. Prove to her that, she is wrong with Literature in English.

4. With examples write short notes on the following literary terms.
(i) Character.
(ii) Form.
(iii) Art. (iv)Literature (v)Oral literature

5. Which literary term(s)is being described by each of the following descriptions .

a) This is the point of the greatest emotional intensity, interest, or suspense in the plot of a narrative……

b) Baraka is complaining that he is so hungry that he can eat a whole cow. Baraka's statement is an example of a figure of speech ……

c) Before Dr. Reginald Mengi passed away, he wrote a book on his own life and experiences entitled "I can, I must, I will. Such accounts are called…….

d) Muhogo Mchungu likes to use expressions that have meanings different from the meanings of individual words. These expressions are called……..

e) It is a kind of literature that deals with non-factual materials or imaginary events and characters.

f) Mother! When I grow up, I will not carry a pen but a gun……

g) "I"ve got just a little amount to sustain me for a week; only one billion" ……

h) "O stone, o might, o heart of man-made god, thou art the emblem of our hope" ……..

i) We cannot dedicate, we cannot consecrate, we cannot hollow this ground …….