10. Read the given poem and answer the questions that follow.

I remember, countrymen,
The days of 'Dawn over the land.'
Of hopes and expectations
When I truly understand
Slavery was a thing of the past
We the people of the land, Had been freed.

I was there when slowly
Darkness set in.
The gradual destruction
Was there in front of me But I did not see it.

I continued, countrymen, to live in the past.
And when I friendly looked
It was too late and even I
Had become a scavenger.
