7 Read the following interview between Mr Chacha the interviewee and the panelists from SEYPALM University then answer the questions that follow.

(Mr Chacha is an energetic young man full of confidence and hope as he is fully prepared for the job interview. It is his first attempt so he makes sure that he has prepared all his documents needed to be carried to the interview. He also reads widely on the subjects he is going to be interviewed for. Knowing that first impression matters, he dresses smartly for the occasion and gets to the place a half an hour earlier. During the waiting time he keeps himself busy going through the mission and vision of the institution and he remains positive and optimistic. He is called in the afternoon and in spite of the long wait he is looking quite fresh, cheerful and enthusiastic.

He knocks gently at the door and seeks permission to enter the room. He gently closes the door behind him without showing his back to the members of the panel. Very quietly and steadily, he walks up to the appointed chair, comes to full attention and greets the chairman and other members of the panel and remains standing.)

Chacha: (very respectfully). Good afternoon to all of you, Sirs!

Chairman: Good afternoon to you Mr Chacha. Please be seated.

Chacha: (He sits squarely avoiding crossing one leg on the other) Thank you very much, Sir. I am obliged.

Chairman: I suppose you are quite at ease and we can begin the interview right away?

Chacha: By all means Sir, I am totally at your disposal.

Chairman: Well, Mr Chacha, I get from your bio-data that you were working at Mchurya Academy. What made you quit from your last job?

Chacha: (avoiding to say anything negative about the past employer) Thank you very much for that question. In fact, I had a good time at Mchurya academy and it was my boss who advised me to look for new challenges in order to grow professionally, so when this chance presented itself, I had to try my luck.

First Panelist: Mr Chacha if you manage to get through this interview, how much would you like to be paid?

Chacha: Thank you for that concern, Sir, but I think we can cross that bridge when we come to it. I mean we'll discuss about that when the job offer is on the table.

(After every question has been asked and answered, Chacha is asked to leave the room and call the next candidate)

Chairman: Ok Mr. Chacha we have finally come to the end of our interview. Our secretary will notify you through your contacts whether you managed to get through.

Chacha: Thank you very much Sir, I wish you all the best. (He collects all his documents and leaves the room)

Chairman: Goodluck!
