9. Read the following poem carefully and then answer the questions that follow.

The dying child

Thin and red,
Skinny and bald,
The boy groans on the ground.

Swollen stomach
Full of waste,
Thin legs,
Thin arms,
Twitch
As the boy
Fights with flies
Over the empty plate.

As he wriggles,
Prisoner
Of proportioned body

Ten years old,
He looks older than ten,
And younger than young,
And so small.

"Mother" shouts the boy,

"When I grow up,
I will carry a gun
And not a pen."

"My son," shouts the mother,
"My son," cries the mother,
"You will never live to carry a gun
There is no meat for us."
