SECTION A 20 Marks HISTORY F111

1 @ 1mark

i	ii	iii	iv	v	vi	vii	viii	ix	x	xi	xii	xiii	xiv	xv
B	B	C	D		D	C	A	B	B	E	A	B	A	A

2. @ 1mark

i	ii	iii	iv	v
H	D	A	B	I

SECTION B: 35 MARKS

3A @ Point 2 Marks, Sketch Map 3marks

3B Why African Resistance failed @ Point 2marks.

I) They used inferior weapons

II) Disunity

III) African had no trained army

IV) They were based on very weak and unrealistic Ideology eg Maji maji

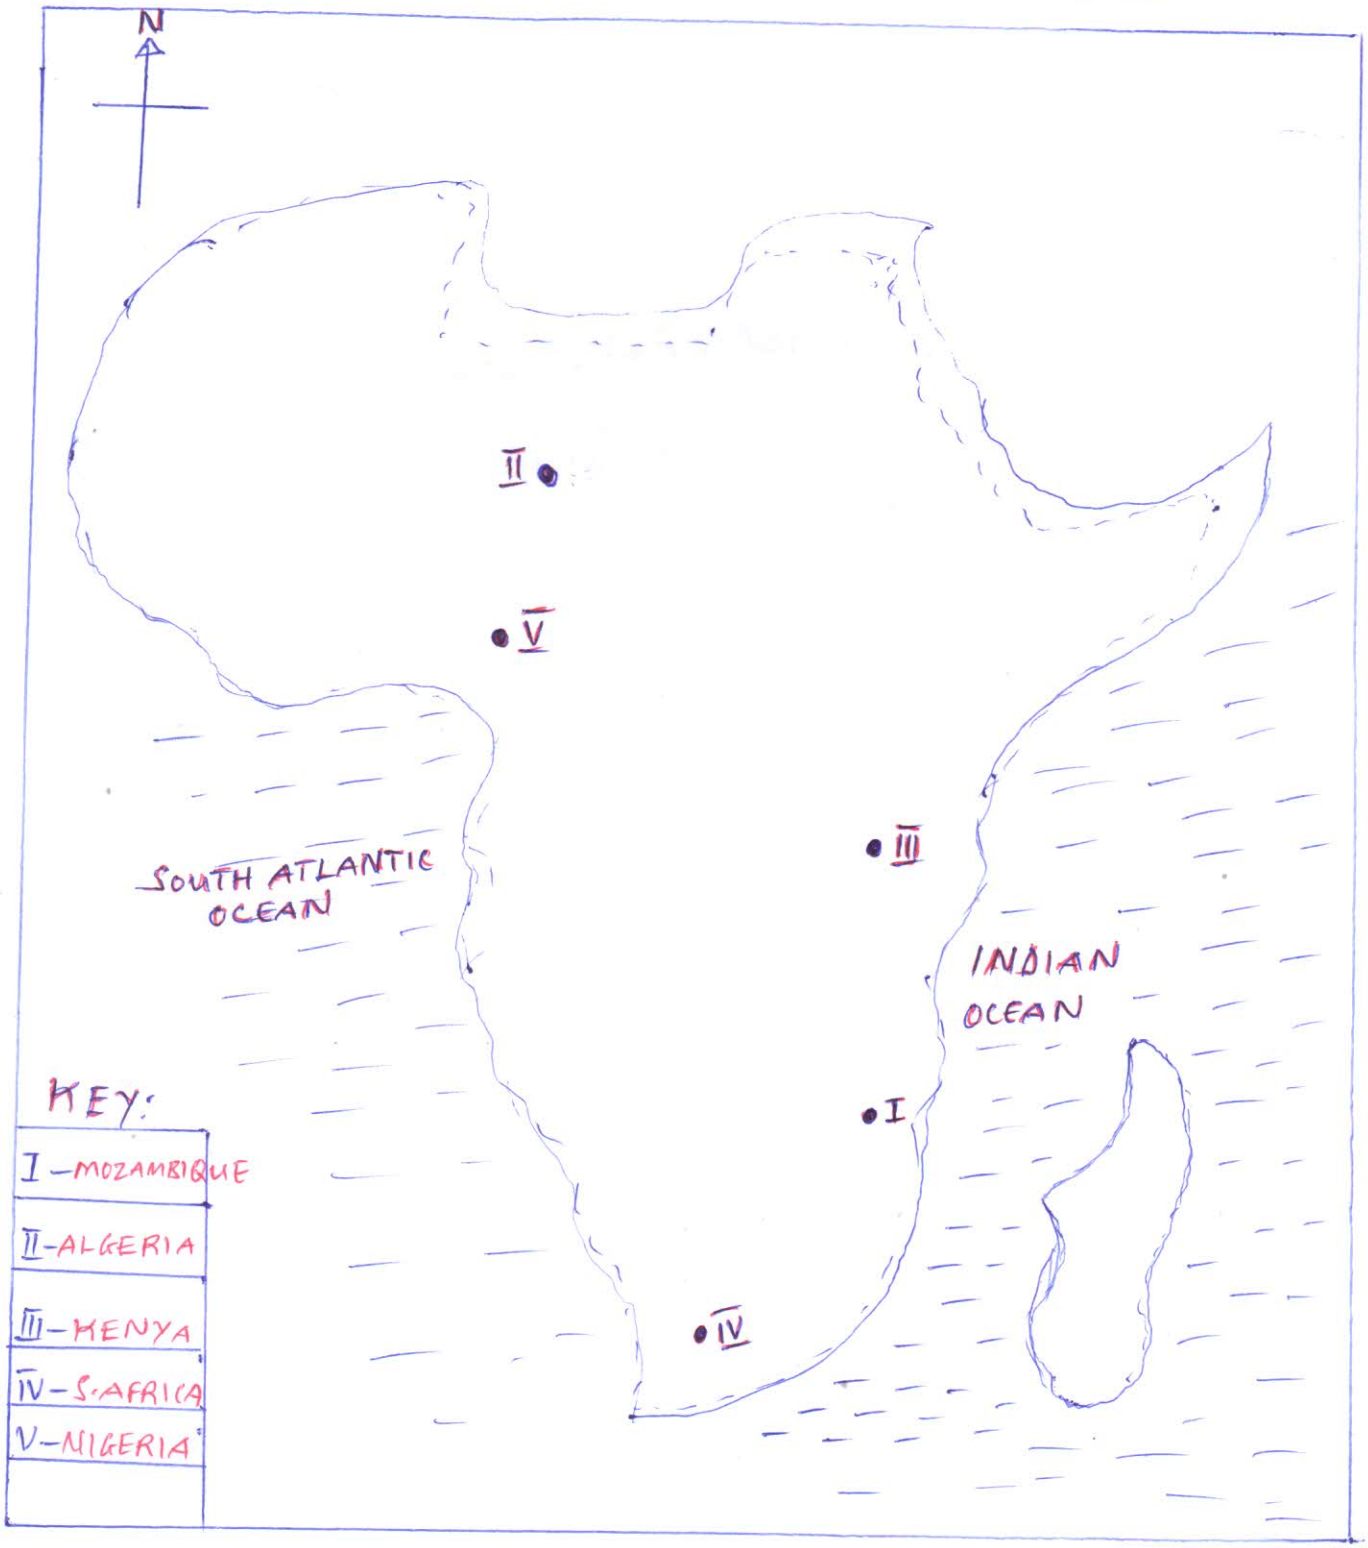

V) Some of the African were betrayed by thier fellow Africans eg Mkwawa wa betrayed by Chief Marere of the Sangu.

VI) Lack of preparation

VII) Natural calamities

VIII) Lack of fighting techniques

3A. A SKETH MAP OF AFRICA SHOWING AFRICAN COUNTRIES

4 @ 2 Marks.

~~VI = 2~~

i = 2

ii = 3

iii = 4

iv = 5

v = 6

vi = 1

SECTION C (45 Marks)

Introduction

5. The late stone age began in Africa from around 50,000BC to the first milennium AD and the following were the major changes in Man's way of life during the late stone age.

Main body

Major Changes in Man's way of life during late stone age

i) Man used better tools with more efficiency compared with the previous stone ages.

ii) Man increased production because of the use of better and efficient tools.

iii) Man started to live a permanent life in this stage as he started domesticating animals ~~any~~ and growing plants

iv) Man began producing food (cultivating) although to some extent he kept on gathering food as among the method of obtain food.

v) There was population increase due to permanent settlement and food production

5 vi) Family life became more stable and this was the beginning of formation of complex communities and villagers

vii) Late stone age also marked the beginning of division of labour primarily in biological differences. @ 2Marks

6. Conclusion

Any relevant conclusion (1.5 Marks)

6. Introduction

A candidate should state in brief the meaning of Settler and plantation agriculture in Colonial Africa.

Settler agriculture was a system dominated by foreigners while plantation agriculture was a system of agriculture where by European monopolised large area to produce cash crops for export to Europe.

Main body.

Settler agriculture and plantation Agriculture had comanon characteristics as follows-

i) Products were mainly based on export and market oriented.

ii) They all needed large number of Labourers for they involve large hectares of Land that were cultivated

iii) They were all based on cash crop production

iv) They were characterized by Land alienation. They involve confiscated of indigenous fertile Land subjecting indigenous into Labourers.

6 V) Involve direct supervision of colonial official to ensure efficient production of raw material that were highly needed in Europe.

VI) The both used colonial administrative system eg direct and indirect rule. (@ point 2 Marks)

Conclusion 1:5 Mark

Any other relevant conclusion.

7. Introduction

A state is a social political entity with a centralized government having power to collect tax or tributes, make laws and enforce them. Pre-colonial African states began to grow during the 1st century because of the following factors. (1:5 Marks)

Main body.

Factors for the rise of State in Pre-colonial societies. @ 2 Marks.

i) Conquest

ii) Trade

iii) Good climatic condition that support Agriculture.

iv) Strong leadership

v) Advancement of technology

vi) Size of the state. States that were small in size were easily to be defended.

vii) Migration

viii) Slave trade

Conclusion

Any relevant conclusion (1:5 Marks)

8 Introduction:

Zanzibar Revolution took place on 12th January 1964 in Zanzibar. The Asp members overthrew the Arabs Sultanate and established peoples rule under the Asp leadership of Sheikh Aman Abeid Karume. (1.5 Marks).

Main body

The following are the benefits of the revolution to the people of Zanzibar.

i) Major means of production were placed under the control of the majority Africans eg land

ii) Trading sector were taken from Europeans and Indians to the control of the government which operated for the benefit of the majority

iii) Financial sectors which were under the control of Indians were taken by the government.

iv) Improvement of infrastructure and establishment of communication media all over Zanzibar in order to simplify communication eg roads, harbours, post and telecommunication etc.

v) Establishment of standardised social services to benefit majority eg hospital, shops, clubs, ~~etc~~.

vi) Majority of Zanzibar people were assured of their safety by the Army KMKM, JW?Z and Police.

vii) Revolution created equality among all races in Zanzibar.

Conclusion 1:5 Marks

Any relevant conclusion.