THE UNITED REPUBLIC OF TANZANIA
THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE
REGIONAL ADMINISTRATION AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT
LONGIDO DISTRICT
ANNUAL JOINT EXAMINATION

FORM THREE
HISTORY
MARKING SCHEME NOVEMBER 2024

SECTION A (16 Marks)

1. Multiple choice.

i.	ii.	iii.	iv.	v.	vi.	vii.	viii.	ix.	x.
C	C	D	D	C	C	E	C	A	C

1(10) = 10 Marks.

2. Matching items.

i.	ii.	iii.	iv.	v.	vi.
H	G	C	B	F	A

1(6) = 6 Marks.

SECTION B (54 Marks)

3. Short notes:
   i. 'The colonial military institution consolidated colonialism'..
      - They suppressed African resistance
      - They collected tax and supervised colonial projects 1(3) = 3 Marks
      - They defended colonial boundaries

   ii.
      - By burning salty reeds
      - By trapping and evaporating salty sea water 1(3) = 3 Marks.
      - By leaching method

   iii. .
      - The availability of trade items
      - The role played by the Monsoon Winds 1(3) Marks.
      - Accessibility of East African coast and its hinterland.

4. Chronology.

i.	ii.	iii.	iv.	v.	vi.
3	2	6	1	4	5

1(6) = 6 Marks.

5. MAP

6.

- colonial infrastructures transported migrant labourers from labour reserves to the areas of production
- colonial infrastructures transported colonial administrators to supervise colonial projects 3(3) = 9 Marks.
- colonial transport transported colonial troops to different areas of African resistance
- they also transported farm implements from the coast to the interior
- they also transported raw-materials from the interior to the coast
- they also transported manufactured goods from the coast to the interior

7.

- They had feudal economy
- They had a central figure of authority 3(3) = 9Marks
- They had clearly defined boundaries
- They had standby armies

8.

- The need to avoid African resistance
- The need to avoid conflict with French taxpayers 3(3) = 9 Marks
- The need to reduce administrative cost
- The need to ensure a smooth exploitative relation within her colonies.
- The need to accommodate African culture.

SECTION C (30 Marks)

9. INTRODUCTION.
   - Define Trans-Saharan trade
   - State its periodization 2 Marks.
   - State the participants

   Main body

   Effects of Trans-Saharan trade.
   - Growth of towns and cities
   - Growth and development of states
   - Rise of educational institutions 2(6) = 12 Marks
   - Spread of Islamic religion
   - Introduction of new commodities from North Africa and Arabia into West Africa
   - Rise of a class of rich merchants.

   Conclusion. Any good conclusion (1 Mark)

10. INTRODUCTION (2 Marks).
    - Define Boer Trek
    - State its periodization
    - Provide its leaders

    Main body. (effects of Boer Trek).
    - Spread of segregationist policies in South Africa
    - Africans' migration
    - Formation of Boer republics 2(6) = 12 marks
    - Discovery of minerals
    - Loss of property
    - Enslavement of Africans.

    Conclusion.

    Any good conclusion is accepted (1 Mark).

11. INTRODUCTION. (2 Marks)
    - Define collaboration
    - State the periodization of African resistance
    - Mention few examples of African collaborators.

    Main body.
    - ✓ Effects of natural calamities
    - ✓ Traditional rivalries
    - ✓ The influence of agents of colonialism 2(6) = 12 Marks
    - ✓ The ignorance of Europeans' intention
    - ✓ Futility of resistance
    - ✓ The need to get political posts during colonialism

    Conclusion.

    Any good conclusion is accepted. (1 mark)