THE UNITED REPUBLIC OF TANZANIA
THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE
REGIONAL ADMINISTRATION AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT
LONGIDO DISTRICT
ANNUAL JOINT EXAMINATION

FORM THREE HISTORY

Time: 3 Hours November 2024

INSTRUCTIONS

1. This paper consists of sections 'A', 'B' and 'C' with a total of eleven (11) questions
2. Answer all questions in sections 'A' and 'B' and any Two (2) from section 'C'
3. Cellular phones and any other unauthorized materials are not allowed in the examination room
4. Write your name on every answer sheet or booklet provided

SECTION A (16 Marks)
Answer all questions in this section

1. For each items (i-x), choose the correct answer from among the given alternatives and write its letter besides the item number in the answer sheet provided.

   i. The pre-colonial Africa had different economic activities one of them being pastoralism. The following were pre-colonial societies which practiced age-set system except-:

   A. Nyakyusa
   B. Maasai
   C. Kikuyu
   D. Kalenjin
   E. Fulani

   ii. One of the following can be said to be the major reason for the Arab and Swahili traders to fight against the Portuguese: -

   A. They wanted to re-introduce Islam
   B. They wanted to prepare for the forth coming events
   C. They wanted to regain their lost economic and political freedom
   D. They wanted to re-introduce Christianity
   E. They wanted to introduce new colonial masters

   iii. Islam was introduced in Western Sudan and later led to the socio-political reformations which led to the rise of states in the following ways except: -

   A. Development of educational institutions
   B. Islam contributed to the development of educational institutions
   C. Development of trade among the people of North and West Africa
   D. Development of industrial and agricultural activities in Western Sudan

E. Islam provided sharia, which were adopted by West African rulers as state laws.

iv. Which one among the following cannot be said to be the motive for the Portuguese travels to Africa in the 15th century?

A. To explore the coast of Africa and find an alternative source to Asia
B. To search for a mythical king named Prester John
C. To capture and control all the trading centres along the Indian ocean
D. To diverge the trade routes from Indian ocean to Europe through Atlantic Ocean
E. To spread Christianity to the inhabitants of Africa.

v. The monopoly stage of capitalism witnessed the merging of bank and industrial capital to form…… that was invested in Africa during colonial time

A. Monopoly capital
B. Syndicate capital
C. Finance capital
D. Financial capital
E. Combined capital

vi. Refer to the treaty that was signed between Karl Peters and the Sultan of Msovero in 1884 who was known as Mangungo.

A. Wichale treaty
B. Ucciali treaty
C. Eternal friendship treaty
D. Bisandugu treaty
E. Vereeniging treaty

vii. Seypalm was admitted to Lupaso Secondary school in 2023 as a form one student. How can one read 2023 historically?

A. The second decade of twenty first century
B. The third decade of twentieth century
C. The third century of the twenty-second decade.
D. The second decade of twenty first century
E. The third decade of twenty first century viii. The 1886 Anglo-Germany agreement did not solve the conflict between the two European countries; the conflict was solved by the 1890 Heligoland treaty that had the following terms except: -

A. Germany recognized Uganda as the British sphere of influence.
B. Germany recognized Zanzibar and the rest of Sultan's dominion as a British protectorate.

C. The Islands of Zanzibar and Pemba and 16 kilometres of the East African coastal strip were given to the sultan of Zanzibar.
D. The western boundaries separating German East Africa, Uganda and Kenya were defined.
E. Germany surrendered Witu coastal strip and was given the Heligoland Island as compensation.

ix. He was the governor who introduced indirect rule in Tanganyika due to experience he acquired from Nigeria; -
A. Sir Donald Cameroon
B. Lord Fredrick Lugard
C. Sir Hesketh Bell
D. Sir Charles Eliot
E. Sir Robert Corydon

x. The colonial military was another coercive apparatus of the colonial government. Which one among the following does not speak the truth about colonial military?
A. Higher positions were occupied by the Europeans and the lower ones by Africans.
B. The King African Riffles (K.A.R) was the British army that was established in Malawi in 1902.
C. The King African Riffles used many mercenaries from Europe and from British colonies of Asia.
D. The Royal Frontier Forces (RWAFF) was the British army that was established in 1900
E. The Belgians who were ruling the colony of Congo established their own military force known as 'Force Publique'.

2. Match the items in list A with their corresponding responses in List B by writing the answer of the correct responses in the answer sheet provided.

LIST 'A'	LIST 'B'
i. Contract labour	A. The man power that was recruited for colonial projects
ii. Migrant labour	B. It was either direct or indirect
iii. Indentured labour	C. Labourers were contracted to serve a certain period of time as a repayment of their debts
iv. Forced labour	D. It was either temporally or permanent
v. Communal labour	E. Labourers moved within the region
vi. Colonial labour	F. Labourers were obtain from areas neighbouring colonial plantation and other projects.
	G. It was common in the mines, settler estates and plantation economies
	H. Labourers provided their labour for a specified period of time.

SECTION B (54 Marks)

Answer all questions

3. Write short notes on the following concepts.
   i. 'The colonial military institution consolidated colonialism'. Argue for this statement in not less than three points.
   ii. How did the pre-colonial people of East Africa coast utilize their natural environment to make salt? Provide three points.
   iii. With the aid of relevant examples, explain three distinctive features of the pre-colonial decentralized states.

4. Arrange the following historical events in chronological order by writing number 1 to 6 beside the item number in the answer booklet.
   i. The defeat of the Nguni by the mighty Shaka, king of the Zulu marked the beginning of the historical phenomenon called Ngoni migration.
   ii. The rise of Shaka following the death of Dingiswayo, gave hope to millions of the Zulus who were once under the control of Amamthethwa who were led by Dingiswayo.
   iii. The death of Zwangendaba led to migration and conflicts and there emerged five more different Ngoni groups from the two initial groups.
   iv. Mfecane was a period of political turmoil that characterized the history of South Africa in the beginning of the 19th century.
   v. The Ngoni migration was an immediate impact of Mfecane Wars of the early 1800s and the effects of their migration was to be seen in East and Central Africa.
   vi. The two groups namely; the Maseko and the Jere Ngoni were able to make it to East Africa by crossing the Zambezi and finally settled in Songea and Ufipa respectively.

5. Draw the sketch map of Africa and locate the following:
   i. A country that formed the cocoa marketing board in order to fight for fair price.
   ii. A country in East Africa that was dominated by peasantry agriculture
   iii. A country where dual mandate was firstly applied in colonial Africa
   iv. A country whose natives resisted German direct rule from 1904-1907
   v. A country in East whose colonial economy was dominated by sisal plantations.
   vi. A country that was scrambled by France and Britain

6. 'Colonial transport and communication consolidated colonialism'. Argue for this statement in not less than three points.

7. 'The centralized states had unique and peculiar features as opposed to decentralized'. Argue for the above stated statement.

8. Explain three reasons to justify the French attempt change the administrative system from assimilation to association policy.

SECTION C (30 Marks)
Answer only two questions

9. With the aid of relevant examples, explain six effects of the contact between the communities of West Africa and the people of Western Europe between 16th to 19th centuries.

10. 'The people of the interior of South Africa were affected by the Boer exodus'. Argue for this statement in not less than six points.

11. With the aid of relevant examples, explain six reasons as to why some African Communities African communities allied with European intruders.