THE PRIME MINISTER'S OFFICE
REGIONAL ADMINISTRATION AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT
LONGIDO DISTRICT MID TERM JOINT EXAMINATION

FORM THREE
012 HISTORY

Time: 3 Hours. Thursday, 27th August 2026 p.m.

Instructions

1. This paper consists of sections A, B and C with a total of eleven questions.
2. Answer all questions in sections A and B, and only two questions from section C.
3. Section A carries sixteen marks, section B fifty-four marks and section C thirty marks.
4. Cellular phones and any unauthorized materials are not allowed in the examination room.
5. All drawings should be done in pencil.
6. Write your examination number on every page of your answer sheet.

SECTION A (16 MARKS)

Answer all questions in this section.

1. For each of the items (i) - (x), choose the correct answer from among the given alternatives and write its letter beside the item number on the answer sheet provided.

(i). Written accounts of past events found in government records, letters, diaries and reports are called:
A. Oral traditions B. Written records C. Archaeology
D. Anthropology E. Numismatics

(ii). The theory that traces the origin of man through a gradual process of change from earlier primate ancestors was proposed by:
A. Louis Leakey B. Charles Darwin C. Mary Leakey
D. Raymond Dart E. Robert Broom

(iii). The mode of production characterised by common ownership of the means of production and absence of private property was known as:
A. Feudalism B. Slavery C. Primitive communalism
D. Capitalism E. Colonialism

(iv). The 19th century long-distance trade route linking Unyanyembe in the interior of Tanganyika with the coast, dominated by ivory traders such as the Nyamwezi, was called the:
A. Trans-Saharan trade B. Central caravan route C. Triangular trade
D. Indian Ocean trade E. Regional trade

(v). The 1873 treaty signed between Britain and Sultan Barghash of Zanzibar which closed the Zanzibar slave market was the:
A. Moresby Treaty B. Hamerton Treaty C. Frere Treaty
D. Heligoland Treaty E. Anglo-German Agreement

(vi). The explorer who circumnavigated Lake Victoria and confirmed it as a source of the River Nile was:

A. David Livingstone B. Henry Morton Stanley C. John Hanning Speke
D. Richard Burton E. Vasco da Gama

(vii). The 1886 and 1890 agreements between Britain and Germany which finalized the boundary between their East African colonies were the:
A. Berlin Agreements B. Anglo-German Agreements C. Brussels Agreements
D. Moresby Agreements E. Frere Agreements

(viii). In the Congo Free State, King Leopold II's system of exploiting Africans through forced rubber collection under private companies was an example of:
A. Indirect rule B. Direct rule C. Assimilation
D. Concessionary company rule E. Trusteeship

(ix). The 1888-1889 coastal uprising in German East Africa led by a wealthy Arab-Swahili trader against German commercial and political control was the:
A. Maji Maji uprising B. Abushiri uprising C. Nama-Herero uprising
D. Hehe resistance E. Zulu resistance

(x). In colonial Kenya, the fertile highland areas set aside mainly for European settlers to grow cash crops such as coffee and tea were known as the:
A. Native Reserve B. Trust Land C. White Highlands
D. Crown Land E. Protectorate Zone

2. Match the items in List A with the correct responses in List B by writing the letter of the correct response beside the item number on the answer sheet provided.

LIST A	LIST B
(i). Colonial policy applied mainly by the British in Africa	A. Association
(ii). Colonial policy applied mainly by the French in West Africa	B. Indirect rule
(iii). Colonial policy applied by the Portuguese, emphasising forced labour and a small assimilated elite	C. Heligoland Treaty
(iv). 1890 Treaty exchanging the island of Heligoland for Zanzibar	D. Assimilation
(v). 1885 Act which set the rules for effective occupation during the Scramble for Africa	E. Berlin Act
(vi). System used by King Leopold II to extract rubber through private companies in Congo	F. Concessionary company system
	G. Direct rule
	H. Trusteeship

SECTION B (54 MARKS)

Answer all questions in this section.

3. Briefly respond to the following questions:
(a) Give three limitations of written records as a source of historical information.
(b) Mention three characteristics of primitive communalism as a mode of production.
(c) Give three reasons why the Nyamwezi became prominent in the 19th century long-distance trade.

4. Arrange the following statements about the Abushiri uprising in chronological order by writing numbers 1 to 6 beside the item number on the answer sheet provided.

(i). The uprising spread quickly along the coast from Pangani to Bagamoyo and Dar es Salaam.
(ii). By 1889, Wissmann's forces had defeated the coastal resistance and restored German control.
(iii). Abushiri bin Salim was a wealthy Arab-Swahili planter and trader based at Pangani.
(iv). In December 1889, Abushiri was captured and later executed by the Germans.
(v). In August 1888, coastal peoples under Abushiri rose up against German commercial and administrative control
(vi). The German government sent Hermann von Wissmann with a strong military force to crush the uprising.

5. Draw a sketch map of the African continent and locate the following historical events/places using numbers 1 to 6:
(i). The coastal area where the Abushiri uprising (1888-89) began.
(ii). The area in Kenya set aside as the "White Highlands" for European settlers.
(iii). The country where the ancient kingdom of Great Zimbabwe was located.
(iv). The country where the Nama and Herero resistance (1904-08) against German rule took place.
(v). The country where the Suez Canal is located.
(vi). The country in West Africa associated with the Kingdom of Dahomey's resistance against the French.

6. Differentiate between the following pairs of concepts:
(a) Legitimate trade and Slave trade.
(b) Settler colonial economy and Peasant colonial economy.
(c) Formal colonialism and Informal colonialism (imperialism).

7. Mr. Mkanda visited South Africa and was told that during the Scramble for Africa, the region attracted great attention from British and Boer settlers. As an expert, analyse the economic potentialities of South Africa that attracted these settlers (give any six points).

8. Justify the statement that "the abolition of the slave trade in East Africa took a long time" by giving six points.

SECTION C (30 MARKS)

Answer only two questions from this section.

9. Explain six effects of the 19th century long-distance trade on East African societies.

10. Mr. Seypalm visited the National Museum in Dar es Salaam and admired old written manuscripts, government records and letters kept there. Describe six historical limitations of written records as a source of historical information.

11. Using six points, explain the factors that led to the Scramble and Partition of Africa in the late 19th century.