COAST REGION FORM III TERMINAL EXAMS MAY 2025

PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

REGIONAL ADMINISTRATION AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT – RALG

COAST REGION

REGIONAL FORM THREE SECONDARY EDUCATION TERMINAL EXAMINATION

022 ENGLISH LANGUAGE

(For Both School and Private candidates)

Time: 3:00 Hours May 2025

Instructions

1. This paper consists of sections A, B and C with a total of eleven (11) questions.
2. Answer all questions in sections A, and B and two (2) questions from section C.
3. Section A caries sixteen (16) marks, section B carries fifty-four (54) marks and section C caries thirty (30) marks.
4. Cellular phones and any unauthorized materials are not allowed in the examination room.
5. Write your Examination Number/Name on every page of your answer sheets provided.

wazaelimu.com

SECTION A (16 Marks)

Answer all questions in this section.

1. For each of the following items (i-x), choose the most correct answer from among the given alternative and write its letter beside the item numbers in the answer booklet provided.

i. Simple present tense has several uses in a sentence. In which sentence it is used to show future plans.
   a) He arrives today from Nairobi
   b) He goes to church every Sunday
   c) He comes Mr. Tchetgen
   d) Magnet attracts iron.
   e) The sun rises in the East and sets in the West

ii. "I am writing a letter". Imagine that a form one student asks you for a help to put it or transform it in passive voice, what will you say:
   a) A letter is being wrote by me
   b) A letter is written by me
   c) A letter is being written
   d) A letter was being written by me
   e) I am being written by a letter iii. Although he is tall, he cannot touch the roof. Begin: Despite………..

   a) Despite of he is tall, he cannot touch the roof
   b) Despite he cannot touch the roof, he is tall
   c) Despite his tall, he cannot the roof
   d) Despite being tall, he cannot touch the roof
   e) Despite of his tallness, he cannot touch the roof

iv. If I had known the answer, I would have told you. This means that a) I know the answer
   b) I didn't know the answer
   c) I know the answer but I didn't tell you
   d) I knew the answer and I told you
   e) I didn't know the answer, yet I told you

v. Your father has asked you to help him to write an invitation card for your sister's forthcoming wedding ceremony and at the end, you put a word R.S.V.P. after drafting the cad you give him for crosschecking. Then, your Daddy asks you "What is the purpose of this word?" what will be your remark
   a) For those who don't know the venue of the event
   b) For who don't know who is getting married
   c) Please reply or please respond whether you will attend or not
   d) Response service for various people
   e) For those who will come late

vi. "it might rain this afternoon". The auxiliary might has been used to show………
   a) Intention
   b) Obligation
   c) Necessity
   d) Permission
   e) Possibility

vii. Last week our English teacher shown us a book in which he writes down his daily experiences, events, appointment and future plans. What is the appropriate name of the book?
   a) Diary
   b) Dictionary
   c) Form
   d) Notebook
   e) Dairy

viii. (knight/night; week/weak; there/their) the pair of the bracketed words together are called
   a) Homonyms
   b) Homophones
   c) Synonyms
   d) Antonyms
   e) Polysemy

ix. Which among the following sentences is correct grammatically?
   a) John is play football everyday
   b) John plays football everyday
   c) John are playing football right now
   d) John will play football yesterday
   e) John shall play football everyday

x. There are some rules that guide language users to use either will or shall in a sentence. Choose the best option that is associated with correct use of shall
   a) Used when talking about or predicting the future
   b) Used for expressing ability
   c) Used in first personal in giving offers
   d) Used with only first personal pronoun singular
   e) Used with only first personal pronoun plural

2. Match the description in List A with their appropriate profession in List B by choosing the correct answer and write its letter in the answer booklet provided.

List A		List B
i.	One who compound or sells drugs.	A. Pedestrians
ii.	One who attend to the diseases of the eye	B. Dentist
iii.	One who attend to sick people and prescribes medicines.	C. Optician D. Oculist
iv.	One who treats diseases by performing operation.	E. Pharmacist F. Surgeon
v.	A physician who assists women at child-birth	G. Obstetrician
vi.	One who test eyesight and cells spectacles	H. Physician

SECTION B (54 Marks)

Answer all questions from this section.

3. a) The following are some of the ways that are used to express ownership or possession in English. Under each way, construct one sentence to illustrate its use a) The use of the verb “to have”
   b) The use of “possessive pronoun”
   c) The use of genitive (‘s)

d) The use of verb “belong” or “belongs”
e) The use of the verb “own” or “owns”

b) when speaking, sometimes English speakers use question tags for confirmation. Using each of the question tag, construct its appropriate statement made by the speaker.

a. Are n’t I?
b. Does she?
c. Is n’t it?
d. Will you?

4. a) express your likes by making one sentence under each of the given ways

i. using a verb “like”
ii. using the pattern: “prefer…..to…..”
iii. using the verb “enjoy”
iv. using the verb “love”

b) Say how you will communicate in each of the following situations

a. To introduce yourself after making a telephone call
b. To show that you are active when listening to the other person during a telephone call
c. To make a reservation (booking) for a bus ticket to Mwanza on a telephone d. To ask a shopkeeper to make a discount for the item you want to buy
e. To ask a shopkeeper for the price of the item you want to buy at the shop

5. Construct the sentences to show how auxiliary verb “DO” can be used

i. As a main verb
ii. To make question
iii. To form a tag question from the statement without auxiliary verb iv. To form negation
v. To avoid repetition
vi. To emphasize the statement

6. a) Using different appropriate patterns, give your personal opinions on each of the following issues

i. School rules
ii. Corporal punishment
iii. Family life education
iv. School routines
v. Rural life

b) complete the sentence in (a-d), by providing an appropriate article for each

a) I bought …………………orange at the market
b) Armstrong landed on…………….. moon 1952
c) Here is ……………. Man that I told you about
d) …………….. toy that was bought for my child was stolen

7. In the following sentences one word is wrong. Rewrite each sentence by replacing the wrong words with the correct one

i. She spent most her carrier as a teacher ii. You should consider his advise iii. He was looking very week after the operation iv. The meet was tasteless

v. I talked to the principle yesterday vi. You are not aloud to enter here vii. I sink its time now to be independent economically viii. Aunt Zubeda rites letters to me frequently ix. I have reserved a sit for you

8. Azam Broadcasting Company of P.O BOX 1010 PWANI is looking for a qualified journalist who will help them to investigate the burning issue of corruption in our country. Write a letter to your friend Juliana informing her that there is a post of journalist in the named company. She should include the CV if she wishes to apply for the post. Sign your name as Siambiliki of Kibaha village P.O.BOX 11 PWANI.

SECTION C (30 MARKS)

Answer only two questions in this section. Question number 10 is compulsory.

9. Imagine that your uncle has been called to attend job interview; explain to him three important things to consider before appearing and three things to avoid during the interview.

10. “Poetry is very important genre of literature as it brings pleasure and enjoyment when reading it, that makes it differ from other genres of literature”. Support this statement by giving out six (6) distinctive features of poetry.

11. It is very true that literature does not exist in a vacuum rather it presents experiences of people as they interact with nature. Prove it by providing six points.