PRESIDENTS OFFICE

REGIONAL ADMINISTRATION AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT

MOROGORO MUNICIPAL COUNCIL

FORM THREE JOINT TERMINAL ASSEESSMENT

022 ENGLISH LANGUAGE MARKING GUIDE

Time 3:00 Hrs June, 2025

1. 1mark @

i	ii	iii	Iv	v	vi	vii	viii	ix	x
A	C	A	C	C	C	D	B	C	B

2. 1 mark @

wazaelimu.com

i	ii	iii	iv	v	vi
F	G	H	C	B	A

SECTION B (54 Marks)

Answer all questions from this section

Every question carries 9 marks.

3. A student is required to express his/her opinions regarding merits of democracy. Among many other correct responses, the following are sample responses:

   1.5 marks @

   i. In my opinion, democracy helps to maintain transparency.

   ii. Due to the fact that democracy allows free and fair election, it promotes peace and unity.

   iii. Furthermore, democracy helps to promote development.

   iv. In addition to that, democracy can be used as a tool for accountability.

   v. As long as there is democratic government, free and fair election can be maintained.

   vi. Having said all these, if democratic culture is preserved, there will be peaceful power succession.

4. 1.5 marks @

   i) They had said a prayer before entering the office.

   ii) I had read a story before being taught in class.

   iii) She had eaten afternoon meal before going to the football match.

iv) He had arrived at the airport before the plane took off.
v) They had postponed the school baraza before the arrival of the District Commissioner.
vi) We had taken breakfast before travelling.

5. Rewrite the following sentences according to the given instructions:
1.5 marks @
(i) A considerable number of students' lives has been claimed by fire outbreaks.
(ii) In spite of his disability, he runs a very successful enterprise.
(iii) However old she was, she got married.
(iv) She is poor, nevertheless, she lives a happy life.
(v) He would have passed the examination if he had studied hard.
(vi) A lot of students will be helped by Zaidu.

6. Rewrite the following sentences in either direct or indirect speech.
1.5 marks @
(i) He said "I can talk to the headmistress"
(ii) Hamisi said "we cannot live without air."
(iii) "Where is Mangungo?" Gaston wanted to know.
(iv) Our cook said that Simon had eaten the prepared food.
(v) Salma wanted to know if he was my father.
(vi) Furaha exclaimed sorrowfully that the dog had died.

7. Describe the following words as used in the cultural activities
1.5 marks @
(i) Cremation is the act of reducing a dead body to ashes by fire.
(ii) Coffin is a box in which a dead body is put.
(iii) Mourn is to feel or show sorrow for the death of someone.
(iv) Shroud is a cloth which is used to wrap a dead body for burial.
(v) Widower is a man who has lost his wife for death and has not married again.
(vi) Groom is a man who is marrying the bride.

8. Imagine that you have just finished your first degree course in Agriculture and you wish to seek a job at Clove Plantation Company, P.O.Box 2222, Kilimani Street. Write a letter to your father who is the manager of the company asking him the permission to apply for the job. Your name is Kaisiki Kizile.
A student is requires to write a friendly letter while considering its all important elements like:
1 mark @
i. Writer's address

ii. Date of writing
iii. Salutation, eg. Dear father,
iv. Introduction of the letter.
v. Main body of the letter (a student should write the aim of the letter in this part)
vi. Body of the letter.
vii. Conclusion of the letter. Here a student may wish all the best to his/her father.
viii. Ending of the letter. eg, your lovely daughter.
ix. Name, Kaisiki Kizale

SECTION C (30 Marks)

Answer two questions from this section. Question number ten (10) is compulsory.

9. Using the knowledge gained from the theory of literature, with the aid of examples differentiate the following words:
   a) Simile is the figure of speech which compares two unlike things by using word of comparison. For example she walks like a chameleon, while metaphor is a figure of speech which involves comparing two dissimilar things without using words of comparison or calling one thing the other. For example, she is a chameleon.
   b) Hyperbole is a poetic device which exaggerates facts, for example, she is as black as charcoal while onomatopoeia is the poetic device which shows the imitation of sound made by an object or person. For example, Dera laughed happily, hahaha.
   c) Rhetorical question is a poetic device which is used to ask questions whose answers are known. For example, are you crying? while you see a person is crying while apostrophe is a poetic device which is used to talk to absent listener. For example, a pregnant mother may express her feelings of love to her expected baby by talking to it although it doesn't here and can't respond.
   d) Reiteration is a poetic device which is referred to as a deliberate use of words or phrases multiple times to emphasize a specific point while alliteration is the repetition of initial identical consonant sounds at the beginning of consecutive words in a poetic line. For example the repetition of sound "f" in the line "feel free my friend"
   e) Assonance is the repetition of the vowel sounds at the beginning, middle or end of words. For example the repetition of vowel "o" in the following verse: "more bread, more fruits, more beef. While consonance is the repetition of the identical consonant sound at the beginning, middle or end of the words, for example in the verse "they clapped for the poor" consonant "p" is repeated.

10. A student should write an essay considering its all three important parts.
    i. Introduction
       Here a student is required to define the key term(s) and other related information.
       This part carries 2 marks

ii. Main body, this part carries 12 marks; 2 marks @ point.
Here a student is required to explain differences between poetry and other genres of literature. For example Poetry uses language economy by using few words for much information. While other genres of literature like play and novels do not involve language economy because they use many words for much information.g
Poetry is arranged in verse and stanza while other genres of literature like novel and play are arranged in chapter and acts respectively.

Conclusion, this part carries 1 mark.

11. Introduction carries 2 marks
A student should explain key term(s) or give a general thesis of the question. Also, should mention books and their writers he/she is going to use as his/her references.

Main body carries 12 marks; 2 marks @point
Here a student is required to write positions of women in the society as portrayed in the books chosen. (Six points)

Conclusion carries 1 mark.