INTRODUCTION - 2 marks.

MAIN BODY - 12 Marks (2 marks @ point = 6 points)

CONCLUSION - 1 Mark.

9. A student should point out figures of speech used in particular poem and explain the content/message conveyed by those figures of speech.

For example.

POEM i) Building the Nation by Henry Barlow

i/ Rhetorical question "Did you have any lunch friend? This ~~potrays~~ the message that government leders should stop hypocrisy. The PS knows that the Driver has not ~~eateef~~ eaten anything but asks just to show hypocrisy.

ii/ Barbarism 'Mwaranchi' this gives reflection on how government Leaders disregard common people in the society. They simply call them mwaranchi to fake that they hold the nation while in reality the nation is hold by leaders.

iii/ Symbolism "PS and DRIVER' Symbolize the presence of classes in the society. This potrays the message that, if the high class is not careful with nation building one day the oppressed may revolt.

- A BABY IS A EUROPEAN

ii/ Irony.

"The baby is a European!" this potrays the message that we should value our identity and culture.. This is an irony because the baby is not european by race but he pretend to behave like a European.

ii) Symbolism
Tongue stand for language.
Baby - stands for the African who are affected by European culture.
Here we get the message that we should not betray our culture in favour of the European culture.

iii) Poetic licence
"He is cross when the mother understands him not"
Instead of "when his mother does not understand him"
This portays the message that children need to respect their parents.

10. A student should define key points of the question i.e Tradition and Customs and state the novel that he/she is going to use in his introduction. Then After he or she has to address tradition and customs that reveal Africanism by the novel "The Concubine by Elechi Amadi.

Points.

- Early Childhood betrothal - is a culture practices in which young children are engaged in marriage. In the novel it is well revealed when Ekwueme engaged to Ahurole when she was eight days.
- Superstition. It is revealed on the way death of people in Nigeria was associated with superstitions and witchcrafts. It is believed that whoever died had done something wrong or has neglected the spirit of the ancestors. Also, birds like vulture were associated with witchcrafts if perched in someone's roof.
- Sex prefence / gender stereotype. Maduene ~~calls~~ calls his children wolu's Children just because they are girls.
- Polygamy. eg. Ahuroles father, Wagbara has two wives who are Wonuma and Aleruchi
- Food Taboos. In the novel women were forbidden to eat gizzard of a bird
- Traditional dances. eg Mmam and Adiele were beating drums while wolu, Wakiri, Wolu and Ekwueme was ~~sig~~ singing happily
- Time Telling
- Wife beating
- Rites of Purification etc.
