QN 10. A candidate is required to show how the title is essential in understanding the content through relating the title and the content.

For example, in a play, The Lion and the Jewel

The Lion and the Jewel" is a symbolic title of a comedy drama that presents the conflict that exists between Africans who are influenced by western ways and those who are loyal to African traditions.

i. The Lion represents Baroka the chief (Bale) in his sixties who hunts the village belle (beautiful girl named Sidi)
ii. The word 'The Lion' is used because of Baroka's behaviour of hunting the jewel by using every possible means even oppressing his competitor (Lakunle –the teacher) as a lion does in the forest as the king of the jungle.
iii. The "Jewel" represents the beautiful and true village belle – Sidi. Sidi becomes a "jewel" of Ilujinle especially when the photographer puts her picture on the front page of the magazine and makes her known throughout the village and beyond. Sidi's words in page 23 sum up the meaning of the title "I am the twinkle of a jewel but he is the hind-quarters of a lion"
iv. Any other play under class programme.
