THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE
REGIONAL ADMINISTRATION AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT
LONAE PRE MOCK JOINT EXAMINATIONS
FORM FOUR JOINT EXAMINATIONS MAY 2021
CODE: 024 LITERATURE IN ENGLISH
MARKING SCHEME

SECTION A

1.

i	ii	iii	iv	v	vi	vii	viii	ix	x
C	D	C	D	E	E	C	E	A	C

1 marks @ Total 10 marks

2.

I	ii	iii	iv	v
B	C	E	D	F

1 marks @ Total 5 marks

SECTION B

3.

@ 1 mark

a) Creativity refers to the ability to make new things or think of new ideas

b) Imagination is the act or power of forming a mental picture of something not present to the senses or never before wholly perceived in reality
OR
Imagination is the ability to form a picture in your mind of something that you have not seen or experienced.

c) Aesthetics refers to the artistic or beautiful qualities of something
OR
Aesthetic is the ability to arouse feelings of interest or pleasure

d) Art is the conscious use of skills and creative imagination especially in production of aesthetic objects
OR
Art refers to something that is created with imagination and skills and that is beautiful or expresses important ideas or feelings.

e) Language refers to the system of arbitrary sounds or symbols that are used by certain people to express their feelings or thoughts.

f) Anadiplosis is repetition of the last word or expression in one statement at the beginning of the next statement.

g) Euphemism refers to the use of words which are less offensive instead of which are offensive

h) Satire is the technique of using wit and humour to criticize a person or institution for the purpose of improvement.

i) Ordinary language refers to an expression which is clearly understood as if is stated.

j) Archaism refers to the technical use of words which are no longer used in common speech of an era.

4. (i) @ 1 mark

a) Sarcasm is used to reveal the extent to which the speaker is annoyed or angry

b) Personification is used if the author or artist wants to arouse audience's feelings and imagination about the issue or something.

c) Understatement is used if an author or artist wants to lessen intensity of something purposely to avoid conflict, or make humour.

d) Repetition is used if an author or artist wants to emphasize a certain message

e) Imagery is used if an author or artist wants to arouse audience's feelings and imagination about the issue or something.

(ii) @ 1 mark for example …….

a) "I heard the hiss passing near me"
b) "You stupid tree don't mike noise around me"
c) "See the dog with one eye"
d) "This is the beginning of the end"
e) "it is a pleasing pain"

5. (a) The oppressed ones (The sons of the land who has risen up to fight against their enemies who oppressed, humiliated and exploit them. (2 marks)

(b) Sunrise – symbolizes the beginning of the struggle against evil
Sun set – Symbolizes the end of struggle

(c) Oppression and humiliation can result to intensive chaos. In the poem if is shown by persona that people who are oppressed are tired now and they have decided to carry up arms to go to fight against their turmiliators and oppressors. It is shown form verse 2 to 5 persona say:

"The sun has risen
And with the sun of the land have risen too
Forward they go
Well armed"

Therefore people should exercise equality and justice to avoid conflicts.

(d) Yes Because the poem depict a theme of sacrifice as if is shown by the persona that the oppressors, the act which actually results to shed of blood and other damages and this is relevant to our society as there are serve politicians who act like patriots to agitate against the ruling power to exercise justice and equality in the society.

(e) Sunrise actually is the time when the sun appears above the horizon in the morning and it surely marks the beginning of the new day. The content in this poem sunrise is majorly the beginning of new hope (determination) in which persona reveals that the people who are oppressed have taken their arms to go to fight against their enemies with the hope of victory at the end, which is sunset.

6. @ 1 mark
   i. Diction/Language use
   ii. Poetic licence
   iii. Ellipsis
   iv. Imagery
   v. Sonnect
   vi. Fable
   vii. Addressee
   viii. Persona
   ix. Octet
   x. Modern of free verse poem

SECTION C

Student should answer only three questions where by question number 7 and 10 are compulsory

7. Introduction: A candidate has to define the term betrayal and specify the plays to be used (2 marks)
   Main body
   Student has to explain six points, that is 3 points per each play upon the reasons for betrayal. (@ 2 marks) for example: form the play: The Trials of Brother Jero i. A piece of land; Brother Jero betray an old prophet because of it.
   ii. Selfishness; cause brother Jero fail to pay his debt to Amope

   Also from the lion and the Jewel, for example:

   i. Bride price: Sidi betrays Lankule because of
   ii. Western education; lakule betrays his society,
   iii. Selfishness; Baroka bribes surveyor
   Relevant conclusion (1 mark)

8. Relevant introduction with the definition of Hypocrisy (2 marks)
   Main body: A candidate to explain by 3 points from each of the two novels on how hypocrisy cause misunderstanding for example; From Houseboy
   i. Madame is pointer to her husband hence the fortune Toundi suspecting tim to tell commandant
   ii. Colonialists are hypocrites by their assimilation policy – hence the torture (humiliation against Africans increased)
   - Relevant conclusion (1 mark)

9. Relevant introduction, depicting the two characters to be used and novels (2 marks)
   - Main body: For example in the Houseboy: (2 marks @)
     i. Toundi present a theme of humiliation;
     ii. Madame present a theme of infidelity;
     iii. Kalisia present a theme of prostitution;
   - Relevant conclusion (01 mark)

10.
   - Relevant introduction (2 marks)
   - Main body: A candidate to explain in three points per each poem reveling the messages that warn the whole society. (2 marks @)
   - Relevant conclusion (1 mark)