THE UNITED REPUBLIC OF TANZANIA

PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

REGIONAL ADMINISTRATION AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT

NORTH WESTERN ZONE FORM FOUR FORM PRE-NATIONAL EXAMINATION

024– LITERATURE IN ENGLISH

TIME 3:00HRS 24-9- 2024

INSTRUCTIONS

- This paper consists of section A, B and C with total of eleven (11) questions
- Answer all questions from section A and B, and choose two (2) questions from section C.
- Section A carries (16) marks, section B fifty- four (54) marks and section C carries thirty (30) marks.
- Cellular phones and other unauthorized materials are not allowed in the examination room.

SECTION A (15 marks)

Answer all questions in this section.

1. For each of the following (i- x) choose the correct answer from among the given alternatives and write its letter in the box provided below the questions.

   i. "Jackson likes wearing three-piece French suit which he always puts on before going to class. As he passes before his students stare at him and want to touch him". There descriptions explain the type of image called:

   A. Tactile image C. Kinetic image E Olfactory image
   B. Visual image D. Audio image

   ii. This is a part of plot where is a follow up of the play's crisis in the story.

   A. Climax D. Exposition
   B. Resolution E. Raising action
   C. Falling action

   iii. "John and his friend James are famous writers of story books and plays. Twenty years ago, john and James were studying hard literature in English while they joined university education where they studied literature successfully. A narrate now, they have written a number story books and plays" which narrative technique has the narrator employed in this story?

   A. Flashback B. Foreshadow C. First person

D. Juxtaposition E. Flash- forward

iv. Which of the following best expresses the features of tragedy?
   A. The happy ending
   B. The main character is the hero
   C. All characters' die
   D. Death of the protagonist
   E. Mixture of elements of comedy and tragedy

v. In poetry, a stanza is given a name according to the number of lines it contains. What is the name of a three- line stanza?
   A. Quatrain
   B. Sestet
   C. Couplet
   D. Cinquain
   E. Tercet

vi. The first part of the play The Lion and The Jewel begins by introducing characters such as Sidi and Lakunle, the setting which is Ilujinle village near a school house and the major conflict between western culture and African culture. In plot arrangement, how is this part called?
   A. Resolution
   B. Exposition
   C. Climax
   D. Raising Action
   E. Background

vii. During form four graduation ceremony at Mwangaza secondary school, Jane recited a poem. At the end of each stanza of the each stanza of the poem, she repeated the same line. What is the name of the line Jane repeated?
   A. Refrain
   B. Rhythm
   C. Tone
   D. Mood
   E. Rhyme

Viii Wanjala was reading a poem and found verses in a stanza which read,

With skin sweating blackness
And a face dark as the night
And bare breasts bouncing Vigour and energy

Which figure of speech has used in these verses?
   A. Suspense
   B. Euphemism
   C. Diction
   D. Hyperbole
   E. Personification

ix During literature in English interschool competition for the three students in Njombe region, salma was asked to pick a piece of paper which had a term that is defined as 'the application of human creative, skills and imagination to produce artworks to be appreciated primarily for their beauty or emotional power". Which literary term used in literature did Salma pick?

   A. Aesthetic
   B. Literature
   C. Language
   D. Creativity
   E. Art

x. Once upon a time, there lived a herd of eight thousand elephants at the bottom of the majestic Himalayas. Their leader was a magnificent and rare white elephant who was an extremely kind- hearten soul. He greatly loved his mother who had grown blind and feeble and could not look out for herself. Each day this white elephant would go deep into the forest in search of food. He would look for the best of wild fruit to send to his mother eat them up themselves. Each night, when he returned home, he would be surprised to hear that his mother had been starving all day. He was absolutely disgusted with his herd. This story can be classified as:

A. Legend
B. Anecdote
C. Folktale
D. Fable
E. Myth

Questions	i	ii	iii	Iv	v	Vi	vii	viii	ix	x
Answer

2. Match the descriptions in list A with the corresponding type of figure of speech in list B by writing the letter of the correct response in the box provided below the questions.

LIST A	LIST B
i. The use of the body movements or facial expressions by actors to present the message without speaking ii. A narrative of the story who knows everything about the character(s) iii. "Three eyes have I, all in a row; when the red one opens, all freeze like the snow" iv. This is a repetition of the same pattern of words or phrases within a sentences used to show that two or more ideas have the same lever of importance. v. It tells what happens in the story vi. These are lines used to describe characters, scenes or actions in a play.	A. Plot B. Riddle C. Parallelism D. Stage direction E. Pantomime F. Imagery G. Omniscient H. Mime

LIST A	I	ii	Iii	iv	v
LIST B

SECTION B (54 MARKS)

Answer all questions in this section.

3. You have been invited to participate in the literature competition with the title "who am I" how would you answer the following items by providing an appropriate literary term described in each competition's item?
    a. I am used to express something other than and especially the opposite of the literal meaning. Who am I?
    b. I am a voice who speaks in a poem. My aim is to address the audience, I can be identified through pronouns such as "I, we, you, your, she, he, us, and it". Who am I?

c. I am the right assumed by poets to alter or alter or invert standard syntax or depart from common diction or pronunciation to comply with the metrical or tonal requirements of their writing. Who am I?
d. I am worn by actor or actress during the performance. I make them look like what they act for. Who am I?
e. I am worn by actor or actress during the performance. A make them look like what they act for. Who am I?
f. I use humour, exaggeration, or ridicule to expose and criticize people's stupidity or vices. My intention is to shame or expose the flaws of individuals, government, or society itself into improvement. Who am I?
g. I am the actor's thought and I am spoken loudly when the actor or actress is alone on the stage. Who am I?
h. We are essential elements of literature. One is the other is the inner part of a complete literary work. Who are we?
i. I am a figure of speech that describes an object or action in a way that isn't literally true. I equate two things not because they actually are the same, but for the sake of comparison or symbolism. Who am I?
j. I am a study of metrical literary composition through which people employ imagination and figurative language to presents ideas and experiences in a concise and condensed language characterized by rhythmical sounds. Who am I?

4. Write the type of literature that is best represented by each of the following descriptions/ stories:

i. Yellow butter, purple jelly, red jam, black bread. Spread it thick, say it quick!
Yellow butter, purple jelly, red jam, black bread spread it thicker, say it quicker!
Yellow butter, purple jelly, red jam, black bread. Don't eat with your mouth full!

ii. Once upon a time there lived a herd of eight thousand elephants. Their leader was a magnificent and rare white elephant who was extremely kind. He greatly loved his mother who had grown blind and could not look out for herself. Each day this white elephant would go deep into the forest in search of food. He would look for the best of wild fruit to send to his mother. But his mother never received any. This was because his messengers would always eat them up themselves. Each night, when he returned home, he would be surprised to hear that his mother had been starving all day. He was absolutely disgusted with his messengers.

iii. The story of Wamugumo is not a story. He was a person just like you. He did not die a long time ago. His body had scales like this tree, called Muiri. He was a tall person, like eight feet tall. And wamugumo would eat a whole cow alone. He worked at Ovari with Delamere. [Lord Delamere was one of the richest and unscrupulous of settlers, and owned much former Kikuyu and Maasai land]. Wamugumo would get hold of a cow and make it stand still when cattle were being inoculated. Wamugumo a whole a whole bag alone. When he was feeding well Wamugumo would consume the whole bag in two days. And as you see him, he would be given a calf as his relish for the Ugali.

iv. In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the spirit of god moved upon the face of the water.

5. In the expressions (i) – (v) state the role of literature which each one of the expressions performs.
    i. When literature decolonizes someone's mind and makes him develop a different way of thinking and perceiving the world around him/her.
    ii. When literature helps in creating fun and relaxation to people
    iii. When literature makes young people cooperate and live together and become good active members of the society which they live in.
    iv. When literature points out the existence of corruption, bad leadership, irresponsibility of leaders and other evils in the society.
    v. When literature serves as a guide against a future occurrence of bad behavior such as laziness, alcoholism etc, in society and thus encourages good character like handworking.

6. Read the following poem and then answer the questions that follow:

I, Too Sing America
I am the darker brother
They send me to eat in the kitchen
When company comes,
But I laugh
And eat well,
And grow strong Tomorrow,
I'll sit at the table
When company comes.
No body'll dare
Say to me
'Eat in the kitchen"
Then.
Besides,
They'll see how beautiful I am
And be ashamed-
I, too, am America.

QUESTIONS

i. What type of the poem is this? Give reason.
ii. Who is speaking in this poem and how do you know?
iii. What is the tone of the speaker of this poem?
iv. Comment on the structure of poem.
v. Suggest the title of this poem.

7. Provide at theme that is represented in the following descriptions as portrayed in the houseboy by Ferdinand Oyono.
    i. Meka took Kelara as his wife when she was too young.
    ii. Engamba and other villagers were welcomed and taken care by Meka's family for several days.
    iii. Meka, Engamba and Toundi were baptized and no longer worshipped their ancestors.
    iv. Toundi served seven masses per day but he was paid with used clothes, and remains of food.
    v. The constables kicked Meka and pushed him to the floor, "you pig wake up!
8. Differentiate the following literary terms:
    i. Dramatic irony and practical irony
    ii. Oxymoron and paradox
    iii. Satire and sarcasm
    iv. Assonance and consonance
    v. Synecdoche and anecdote.

SECTION C (30 MARKS)
Answer two (2) questions from this section.

LIST OF READINGS

PLAYS

The Lion and The Jewel - Soyinka, W.

The Trials and Brother Jero - Soyinka, W.

The Dilemma of Ghost - Aidoo, A. A.

The Government Inspector - Gogol. N

NOVELS

A Walk In The Night And Other Stories - Laguma, A

Houseboy - Oyono, F

The Old Man And The Medal - Oyono, F.

The Concubine - Amadi, E

POETRY

Selected Poems - Institute Of Education

9. Poetic devices are important tools used by the poets not only to colour their poems but also to deliver the intended message to the readers. Use two poems to prove the truth of this statement by showing how poetic devices have been used to deliver the intended message. Give three (3) points from each poem.
10. Every work of art depends on setting to reflect people's everyday life. Use two novels of A Walk in the Night and Other Stories by Alex La Guma and the Concubine by Elechi Amadi to explain how settings have been to reflect the people intended by the authors. Write three (3) points from each novels.
11. Some of our customs and traditions are said to be outdated, therefore, they need to be revised and modified. Choose two plays from the list above and propose with reasons three (3) customs and traditions from each that need to modified.