THE UNITED REPUBLIC OF TANZANIA

REGIONAL ADMINISTRATION AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT

KIBAHA PRIVATE SECONDARY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION (KIPSSA)

FORM FOUR PRE-KIPSSA EXAMINATION

012 HISTORY

Time: 3 Hours 2025

Instruction

1. This paper consists of a total of eleven (11) questions.
2. Answer all questions in section A and B and two (2) questions from section C.
3. Section A carries 16 marks, section B carries 54 marks and section C carries 30 marks.
4. ALL writings must be in blue/black ink, drawing in pencil.
5. Put all the answers in the answer sheets NOT in the question papers.

SECTION A (16 MARKS)

Answer all questions from this section

1. Each of the following statements has several answers. Choose the most suitable answer and write its letter in the space provided.

(i) Archaeologists start work by first locating an archaeological site. Then they dig up or excavate the remains of people, settlement sites, caves and artefacts. From there they study and classify the remains collected from archaeological site. By classifying the remains, the archaeologists are able to establish the age of the materials and determine when certain development took place. Two methods are used in the classification process namely:

A. Radio carbon dating and carbon fourteen dating.

B. Traditional method dating and potassium argon dating.

C. Radio carbon dating and potassium argon dating.

D. Changes-events dating and potassium argon dating.

E. Radio carbon dating and family tree dating.

(ii) The discovery of iron accidentally was a new technical innovation which changed the life and culture of man. A fire place might have had a piece of rock close by which melted overnight but solidified in the morning. Two theories are associated with the discovery of fire. These are

A. Discovery of sparks and forest fire theory.
B. Mistaken identity theory and forest fire theory.
C. Forest fire theory and discovery of sparks.
D. Theory of creation and theory of evolution.
E. Forest fire theory and iron smelting theory.

(iii) In East Africa, shifting cultivation was commonly practiced in most parts of central and southern Tanzania, and in large areas of northern and north eastern Kenya. The major disadvantage of shifting cultivation was;

A. The demand for a very high capital and expensive labor force to clear the bushes for new farm.
B. The continued destruction of land and eco-system through burning and cutting trees.
C. The massive removal of forests and natural vegetation through application of insecticides.
D. The continued destruction of forests and natural vegetation through application of agrochemicals.
E. the continued destruction of forests and natural vegetation through burning and cutting trees.

(iv) In the beginning of trade, trade was conducted as barter trade. People exchanged what they had with what they did not have. This kind of trade was dominant before the discovery of money as a medium of exchange. This trade was also referred to as

A. Dumb trade.
B. Merchandise trade.
C. Fair trade.
D. Primitive trade
E. Communal trade.

(v) Under the Ntemiship system, rulers were chosen by a council of elders. This council had political power and could depose the Ntemi. Ntemi was chosen on the basis of his…

A. Witch-craftiness, courage and braveness.
B. Assertiveness, wisdom and self-worth.
C. Charisma, empathy and sympathy.
D. Wisdom, courage and experience.
E. Wealth, military ability and charisma.

(vi) A system of governance in which precolonial Africa leaders lowered responsibilities and administrative power to their subordinates such as chiefs, nobles, ministers, judges, tax collectors, soldiers and ministers was considered by Historians to be

A. Checks and balances.

B. Power sharing.

C. Leadership sharing.

D. Good governance.

E. Democratic leadership.

(vii) Among the motives for development of contacts between Africa, the Middle East and the Far East, was exploration and adventure. It was done by travelers such as

A. Usman dan Fodio and John Speke.

B. David Livingstone and Ibn Batuta.

C. Al Idris and Vasco Da Gama.

D. Ibn Batuta and Al Idrisi.

E. Al Idris and Ali Beyi.

(viii) The Portuguese rule in the East African Coast was divided into two administrative areas. The boundaries were at Cape Delgado. These areas were governed by two Captains ruling from two Capital Administrative Cities. These Captains were the

A. Captain of Malindi and the Captain of Mombasa.

B. Captain of Sofala and the Captain of Mombasa.

C. Captain of Cape Delgado and the Captain of Kilwa.

D. Captain of Mogadishu and the Captain of Sofala.

E. Captain of Kismayu and the Captain of Mozambique.

(ix) European explorers explored the interior of Africa in order to discover the resources found in those areas. The first major success in the exploration of West Africa was achieved by Mungo Park's first journey in West Africa.

A. The journey was sponsored by the United Africa Company in 1886.

B. The journey was sponsored by the Church Missionary Society in 1887.

C. The journey was sponsored by the University Missionary to West Africa.

D. The journey was sponsored by the Basel Missionary Society in Ghana in 1859.

E. The journey was sponsored by the Royal Geographical Society in 1794.

(x) Tanganyika was colonized by the Germans before 1918; it was the German East Africa. In 1893, the Germans built the Tanga – Korogwe railway line. Which of the following is correct?

A. It reached Korogwe in 1902 and Moshi in 1912.

B. They also constructed the central line from Dar es Salaam to the western side from 1908.

C. It reached Morogoro in 1902.

D. It reached Tabora in 1919.

E. They also constructed the SGR.

2. Match the description in List A with correct responses in List B by writing the letter of the corresponding responses beside the item number in the answer sheet {s} provided.

List A	List B
(i) The agreement effectively concluded the Rhodesian Bush War. It also marked the nullification of Rhodesian's Unilateral Declaration. (ii) A treaty signed in 1889 between the Ethiopian Empire and the Kingdom of Italy. It led to a significant misunderstanding and conflict due to differing interpretations of the treaty's language, particular Article XVII. (iii) German handed over to Britain the protectorate over small sultanate of Witu land and parts of East Africa vital for the British to build a railway to lake Victoria, and pledged not to interfere with British actions against the independent Sultanate of Zanzibar. (iv) This treaty was a key factor in the partition of Africa, it granted France control over the right bank of the Congo River and marked the beginning of French territorial expansion in Central Africa. (v) The significant agreement between France and the Wassoulou Empire ruled by Samory Toure. It was signed in 1887. It granted France rights of navigation on the Niger River and delimited the Wassoulou Empire's borders with France. It marked Wassoulou a French protectorate. (vi) A 1923 policy document issued by the British government regarding the status of settlers and native Africans in the Kenya Colony in East Africa.	A. Heligoland treaty. B. Bissandugu treaty. C. Delimitation treaty. D. Frere treaty. E. Uccialli/Wichale treaty. F. Buganda agreement. G. Brazza Makoko treaty. H. H.Devonshire White Paper I. Lancaster Agreement.

SECTION B (54 MARKS)

Answer all question in this Section

3. Answer the following questions briefly.
   (i) How did the colonial government play part in the development and growth of peasantry economy in the colonial Uganda? Provide three ways.
   (ii) The First World War witnessed the participation of world's great powers but the United States joined late and in the side of allied Powers. Account for this phenomenon by giving three points.
   (iii) The post-colonial states in Africa witnessed the change in legal institutions in order to do away with colonial unjust and unfair laws, however; despite all the changes in legal institutions, it is said that legal institutions are very weak. Prove the validity of this statement by giving three points.

4. Arrange the following events in a chronological order by writing number 1 to 6 beside the item number.
   (i) The formation of the United Nations and establishment of the Trusteeship council was of great importance to the rise of African nationalism.
   (ii) The independent states of Africa aimed at creating strong continental organization hence they formed the Organization of African Unity.
   (iii) The formation of SADC was welcomed by two hands by the people of Southern African countries as it promised them of a bright future.
   (iv) The Pan-African movement that started in the United States and Caribbean laid a foundation for establishment of global struggle of black people's unity and solidarity.
   (v) The people of East Africa were not left aside they responded to this wave by forming the famous East African community.
   (vi) The West African countries also responded by forming the Economic Community of West African States.

5. Draw a sketch map of Africa and locate the following historical facts.
   (i) A country in which the West African Pilots helped to awaken the mass in the colony against the evils of colonial masters
   (ii) A country that was the headquarters of Portuguese rule in West Africa after building a fort in 1482
   (iii) A country that was the chief sisal producer during Germany colonial time in Africa
   (iv) A land that was not colonized because it was a land of freed slaves and later became the major rubber producer.
   (v) A country where the British colonial invaders suffered a defeat in an open battle in 1879
   (vi) A country that witnessed the coup d'état in 1966 that removed from power a traditional leader and a counter coup in 1971.

6. Briefly answer the following questions.
   (i) Using two points prove the existence of early contact between the people of East Africa and those from Middle and Far East
   (ii) Why did the French colonial government reform her administrative policy in 1945? Provide two points
   (iii) The pre-colonial government used two ways to obtain gold. Explain these methods with examples.

7. The African Union (A.U) traces its history in the 1960s with the formation of O.A.U with its headquarters in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. Explain three guiding principles of the African Union.

8. The provision of colonial social services was said to be poor and much imbalanced. Provide three points to explain the weaknesses of colonial education

SECTION C (30 MARKS)

Answer two questions only

9. Present any six implications of excluding History subject from among of the subjects termed as core subjects in Tanzania's new curriculum of Secondary school education.

10. "East Africa was affected by the coming of Oman rulers in Zanzibar from 1840's". Discuss this statement by giving six (6) points.

11. Show the role played by the colonial social services in consolidating colonialism in Africa. Give six (6) points.